Two VIP tickets to the premiere of former BGMC member Brian Calhoon's Marimba Cabaret on Tuesday, June 28, 2016, 8:00pm Club Cafe (one night only!)
- See what happens when a classically-trained percussionist with musical theater sensibility --and killer taste in shoes-- puts on a show. Brian's Marimba Cabaret brings together years of training and a lifetime of passion in an evening of theater tunes, art song, and pop covers performed on marimba, vibraphone, and voice.
- "What's a marimba?" Come find out! (Hint: It's like a xylophone, but bigger and more fabulous -- just like Brian.)*
- Joined by a few special guests, Brian will sing, play, and (at times) stand 7-feet tall.
- Brian Calhoon combines his experience as a percussionist and vocalist to perform a varied collection of music for marimba and his voice. In 2013, Brian made his stiletto debut as marimba soloist with the Boston Gay Men's Chorus during the Candelabra Cantata opposite "Liberace" (Chad Weirick) in a battle of dueling keyboards. Director Greg Jukes is a percussionist, narrator, and self-described "hybrid artist" who performs internationally as one-third of The Fourth Wall.
- There will be drinks. There will be heels. There will be music.
Good for day and date only.
